

DEN SIDA Badge

Last Modified on 11/08/2021 12:55 pm MST

DEN based Flight Attendants are not required to have a SIDA badge.

For those that would like to give themselves access to the aircraft early or park using the Airside Lot. A SIDA Badge can be a useful tool.

Reminder: A SIDA Badge carries great perks, but also it is a great responsibility. Please ask an Inflight Supervisor if you have any questions surrounding a SIDA Badge.

To apply for a SIDA Badge you must fill out a Fingerprint Processing Form. These can be made available upon request to any Inflight Supervisor. The completed forms must be submitted to DENF9Badging@FlyFrontier.com

After this clearance is completed, You will receive a signed application, either via email or via VFile, to take with you to the DEN Badging office. (Note: This application must be printed and delivered to the Badging Office)

There are two (2) Badging Office Locations, where you may obtain a SIDA badge.

Main Badging Office,

- 4th Floor at the East End of the A Concourse, directly above the F9 DEN Crew room (take the elevator past Gate 46),

Satellite Badging Office, 7640 Undergrove St Unit A, Denver, CO 80249.

- Use your smartphone camera to scan the QR code below for directions to the Satellite Badging Office. Hours are Monday through Friday 0645 to 1600.

□

To view current Badging Office walk-in wait times, check-in online, or schedule an appointment, return to their home page www.flydenver.com/badging.
