Hartsfield-Jackson Atlanta International Airport also known as ATL is the busiest airport in the world. ATL is a global gateway, offering nonstop service to more than 150 domestic and 70 international destinations. ATL also holds the distinction of being the first airport in the world to serve more than 100 million passengers in a single year.

Hartsfield-Jackson International Airport is located at:

6000 N Terminal Pkwy

Atlanta, GA 30320.

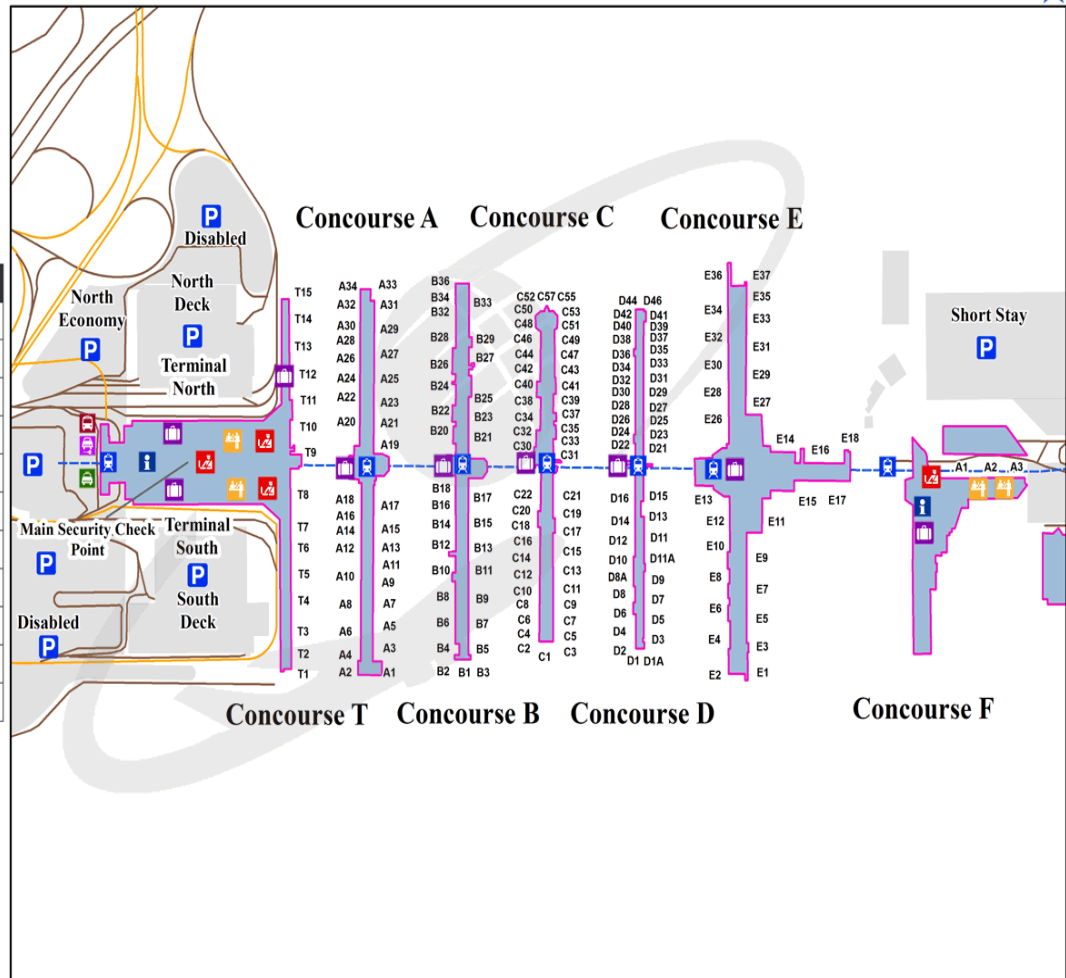

The airport consists of Domestic and International Terminals as well as Concourses T, A, B, C, D, E and F (International). Within these concourses, there are a total of 192 gates comprised of 152 domestic and 40 international gates.

The Airport's underground The Plane Train connects all concourses with the Domestic and International terminals and consists of eleven, four-car trains operating on a 3-mile loop track. The Plane Trains operate approximately every two minutes. On average, the trains carry more than 200,000 passengers per day.

Frontier Airlines ticket counters and Baggage Carousels are in the Domestic Terminal North on Level 2. Flights operate out of Terminal D: utilizing Gates D1, D1A and D3 and Terminal E: utilizing Gates E2, E4 and E6.
